

GAMES GOLF 12

Wanganui signwriter Morrie Gibbons posted 147 to claim further success in his successful career when headed the over-50 Masters Games 36-hole golf field.

Gibbons, aged 71, who helped his Belmont club win the Manawatu-Wanganui A grade pennants title last season, was one shot better than younger Alistair Smith (Carterton) who won the 50-54 age group.

Third best gross of 150 went to Wanganui's Sunny Teki with 150 in claiming the 55-59 age group.

Jan Bilger (Remuera), wife of former Olympic yachtsman Jock Bilger, returned the best women's gross of 168 to win the 65-69 division.

She finished three ahead of Mary Nimmo (Wanganui), who took the 70-74 grade, and four better than 60-64 age group champion Ngaire Wakeling (Wanganui).

Best men's net scores were produced by John Little (Castlecliff) with 123 in the 60-64 grade, 129 by Joe Keating (Wanganui) in the 50-54's and former Wanganui rugby rep Graeme Lance (Waverley) who had 130 in Little's grade.

In the women's net Iris Harrop (Manaia) has 129 in the 55-59 division and Ginny Cranstone (Wanganui) 132 in the 60-64 grade.

Steve Ander (Westown) carded 80 stableford points in the men's 50-54 section, Joan Griffiths (Rangatira) 82 in the women's 60-64 grade and Sue Black (Hutt) 80 in the 55-59's.

Overseas golfers to the fore were John Alderson (UK) plus Australians Rosalyn Greer and Mary Walden who won silver medals plus German Guenter Brueckler and Australians Norm Bremner, Katie Webber Colin Steel, Margaret Costello and Dianne van Geuns who were third.