

GAMES CARRIAGE 13

Masterton 72-year-old Pam Nathan certainly knows how to handle horses. She snared two gold medals in the 55 and over class of carriage driving in the Masters Games equestrian events at Horrocks Park, taking both the graded dressage and show classes.

In addition she was runner-up to Greytown's 63-year-old Eileen Woolcock in the pleasure drive

Yvonne Weal, 48, from Te Awamutu, was even more dominant in her age division with three titles.
