

GAMES SNOOKER 13

Aucklanders John Rehman was on cue to take two gold medals in the Masters Games snooker.

The 55-year-old beat other medal winners Ray Dahlberg (Masterton), Ted Mallowes (Australia) and John Hinga (Wanganui) in the 50-59 singles.

He then dropped down an age division to win the 40-49 pairs with Tauranga's Kerry Paul when they beat that grade's singles champion Brian Ward (Marton) and fellow Marton cueist Phil Dixon for the title.

Don Wiggins (Masterton), aged 70, won the 60-plus singles.

Wanganui's Noel Mouldey and Dave Buchanan and Ohakune brothers Mick and Ray Godfrey also took pairs titles.

Denise Matthews (Wanganui) beat Auckland's Celia Billington in the Queen of the Tables singles.
